In the earliest days of the automobile, navigating America's roads was a chaotic experience, with pedestrians, bicycles, horses & streetcars all competing with motor vehicles for the right of way. The world's first electric traffic signal was put into place on the corner of Euclid Avenue & East 105th Street in Cleveland, Ohio, on August 5, 1914.

Based on a design by James Hoge, who received U.S. patent no. 1,251,666 for his "Municipal Traffic Control System", it consisted of four pairs of red & green lights that served as stop-go indicators, each mounted on a corner post. Wired to a manually operated switch inside a control booth, the system was configured so that conflicting signals were impossible. According to an article in The Motorist, published by the Cleveland Automobile Club in August 1914, "This system is, perhaps, destined to Revolutionize the handling of traffic in congested city streets & should be seriously considered by traffic committees for general adoption."

TOTALLY TRIPLING TRIVIA!

ACCORDING TO ROLLING STONE MAGAZINE, WHAT SONG IS THE BEST SUMMER SONG OF ALL TIME?

"Dancing in the Street," Martha & the Vandellas

Summer is the time for dance jams, backyard cookouts, and partying at the beach. The music industry knows this.

Summer's arrival spawns some of the most sizzling songs to hit the charts. Rolling Stone Magazine ranked summer hits - from oldies to classic hip-hop, from indie-rock to hard-core rock 'n roll - of all time. The winner is "Dancing In the Street," by Martha & The Vandellas. This song encourages the world to transform into a giant summer block party (with proper social-distancing, of course!). The iconic party-jam lyrics were co-written by Marvin Gaye. August 2nd is Friendship Day! Just like the name sounds, it's a day to honor and celebrate our friends. In the United States, Friendship Day is celebrated on the first Sunday in August. Of course one of the best ways to spend any day is to hang out with friends. Be smart, and stay safe, but good friends can be one of the great joys in life and Friendship Day is a great time to let your friends know how much they mean to you!

NOW YOU KNOW...

The United States Coast Guard is much older than many Americans realize. It was founded on August 4, 1790, by Treasury Secretary Alexander Hamilton & was known back then as the Revenue Marine. Hamilton authorized the construction of ten vessels known as Revenue Service cutters, which were intended to enforce the earliest United States tariff laws. In 1915, President Woodrow Wilson signed an act of Congress into law that combined the Revenue Marine with another agency known as the United States Life-Saving Service with the intent of having a single entity responsible for maritime law enforcement & life-saving. The merger was accompanied by a change of name to the United States Coast Guard.
